Volume 22
Issue 11
November 2017

by Dina P & Heather C

The Halloween party went off like a bang! Tara Hall looked Spooktacular this year thanks to the hard work of the Council.

Typical Halloween hits were featured such as Monster Mash, Thriller and Ghostbusters along with some good dance tunes for everyone to enjoy.

2017 showed us a great turnout of kids, who happily enjoyed the special Halloween baggies prepared just for them! There was a fantastic selection of costumes this year, but after an intense discussion between the judges the winners were chosen:

Best Kid Costume

Dylan L as Necromancer

Best Couple

Pete T & Lisa H
as Jack Skellington & Sally

Best Male

Dave P as Genie
on a Magic Rug

Funniest Costume

Paul O as Elmer Fudd
(who finally got Bugs Bunny!)

Best Female

Tara V as Betty Boop

Scariest Costume

Grace L as a Zombie

Please welcome Heather C. to the Star Ranch Office. She started October 3rd and is working Monday through Friday and assisting on Saturday when needed.

She is a hard worker, quick learner and a pleasure to work with.

TURN OFF YOUR WATER

Just a reminder that when residents leave their home for an extended period of time or when non-residents leave their cabin/rv & go home to PLEASE shut off your water.

Thank You!

November 18th
Cigar Lounge will be at Star Ranch.
If you don't find him
at the outdoor pool
he will be parked at Tara Hall.

Our cabin at P1 is for sale and ready for you to move in (cabin sq ft 255, porch sq ft 145) Asking $3,750.

December 31st is our yearly Progressive Dinner.

If you are interested in hosting, appetizers, salads, main course or desserts, there is a sign up sheet in the café.

Octoberfest brought a great turnout. Never ending brats, great sides, delicious desserts and many flavors of beer for the 60+ attendees.

Many thanks to all who made this one of the best!

By Ivan & Judy M

October 14th we had our first work day since the heat of the summer and was very successful. We had a crew working on stripping pine tree trunks for the future Tiki Bar. Another crew was working at site G-3 tearing down the old uninhabitable mobile home and a small crew in the office paining trim. All quit around 1:00, received a ticket for the Silver membership drawing and filled up on burgers and chips

Road Kill Cookoff
by Ivan & Judy Mc

The annual road kill cookoff is for the adventurous and not the faint of heart. Three adventurers brought in their road kill fare and eagerly awaited results from three hungry judges....Pete T was third place with alligator chili—and yes, he used real alligator meat. Wanda H. took 2nd place with her lizard lasagna (not a real lizard) and Crystal W. was awarded the traveling trophy for her fantastic feral hog green chili (not sure if it was a feral hog!).

A well attended potluck followed the judging. Thanks to the participants and judges.
